3 STATEMENT OF FACTS

4 I, Special Agent Barbara Hopkins, of the Drug Enforcement
5 Administration declare the following is true and correct:

6 On January 2, 2008, at approximately 7:00 PM Drug Enforcement
7 Administration (DEA) agents, along with the Imperial County
8 Sheriff's Office and El Centro Police Department conducted a search
9 with the consent of Daniel FIGUEROA-Moreno of 1711 Lenrey Avenue,
10 El Centro, California. Upon searching the residence, agents 11 located approximately 3,833.79 pounds of marijuana in three of the 12 four bedrooms in the residence. In the closet of the bedroom that 13 contained personal property of Adolfo Jonathan TORRES, agents
14 discovered approximately 25 bundles of marijuana.
15

16 On January 2, 2008, DEA SA Jeff Butler and Imperial County
17 Sheriff's Office Deputy Camilo Gonzalez conducted an interview of 18 Daniel FIGUEROA-Moreno. FIGUEROA is a resident of the 1711 Lenrey
19 Avenue address. FIGUEROA stated an individual in Mexico known only 20 as "E" contacted FIGUEROA and instructed him to locate a house to 21 rent for the purpose of storing marijuana. FIGUEROA stated "E"
22 sent him $1,300.00 for the rent at the 1711 Lenrey Avenue address.
23 "E" also sent FIGUEROA $600.00 every two weeks as payment to 24 FIGUEROA and others to watch over the marijuana and allow access to 25 the house for individuals moving marijuana into and out of the 26 residence. FIGUEROA also stated the last shipment of marijuana to 27 the house was on December 20 or 21, 2007.
28

On January 2, 2008, SA Adriel Villacorta and Barbara Hopkins
1 interviewed Ricardo FIGUEROA, who is the brother of Daniel
2 FIGUEROA. R. FIGUEROA was present at the 1711 Lenrey address on 3 the night of January 2, 2008, and was arrested following the 4 discovery of the above mentioned marijuana. R. FIGUEROA stated
5 besides Daniel FIGUEROA, Horaldo FLORES and Christian GUTIERREZ, an 6 individual named Adolfo Jonathan TORRES, AKA "Jonathan", also 7 resided at the residence. This was evidenced by pay stubs,
8 photographs and other paperwork in the name of Adolfo Jonathan
9 TORRES which were located in the bedroom which contained 25 bundles
10 of marijuana. R. FIGUEROA further stated TORRES was at the 1711
11 Lenrey address on the night of January 2, 2008, but quickly fled
12 out the back door when police officers rang on the doorbell.

14 On January 9, 2008, DEA special agents (SA) Victor Vazquez,
15 Matthew Lankenau, Jim Hughes and ATF agent Armando Hernandez
16 arrested Adolfo Jonathan TORRES at his place of employment in El 17 Centro, California. SAs Hughes and Hopkins began an interview of 18 TORRES. SA Hughes read TORRES Miranda Warnings via a DEA 13A card.
19 TORRES acknowledged his rights and agreed to answer questions
20 without an attorney being present. TORRES stated he had been 21 residing at the 1711 Lenrey Avenue address since mid-December 2007.
22 TORRES stated he was aware that marijuana was being kept at the 23 house. TORRES stated while being the sole occupant of the 24 residence, he came in contact with an individual who parked a 25 pickup truck containing marijuana in the garage of the residence.
26 TORRES later stated he observed Daniel FIGUEROA-Moreno and the 27 individual with the pickup truck packaging and storing marijuana
28

inside the residence. TORRES stated he did not pay for room and board. TORRES stated he chose to remain living at the residence despite knowing that marijuana was being stored there. TORRES further stated on the night of January 2, 2008, he observed police officers at the front door of the house and after looking out the front window, he fled out the back door. TORRES stated he fled the house because he knew a large quantity of marijuana was being stored there.
